JOIN US

Arkansas Crisis Centers' Together for Tomorrow is an event where art and mental health advocacy converge for a crucial cause. Hosted at the M2 Gallery in SoMa, Little Rock, Arkansas, this gathering showcases special artwork by local artists, each piece reflecting the themes of mental health.

LOCAL ARTISTS

Explore art that speaks volumes on mental health, crafted by local artists. Each piece at the Soma Art Gallery offers a unique perspective on the journey towards healing, designed to inspire conversation and connection within our community.

THE NUMBERS

Our services are needed now more than ever. Between March 2020 and May 2022, the Arkansas Crisis Center has a 736% increase in hotline calls and ended the 2022 calendar year with 22,351 calls.

OUR STORY

The Arkansas Crisis Center is a nonprofit organization founded on hope. Following a rash of teen suicides in 1985 at Rogers High School. The Arkansas Crisis Center provides 24/7 suicide intervention and prevention hotline services across the state of Arkansas through the national 988 Lifeline.

This event is a collective effort in suicide prevention, offering educational information, insightful talks from the Arkansas Crisis Center, and resources on mental health support. It's a platform for community engagement, learning, and extending support to ensure that everyone facing mental health challenges has the hope and help they need for a better tomorrow. Your participation in this event contributes to building a more informed and caring community.
